Subject: lunch 09 Jan 2008

Just to say that on recommendations, we had a Sunday lunch at the Rose and Crown 2 Sundays ago. The Roast beef and Yorkshire was superb!

Yesterday, 9th Jan, three of us visited, and had the most superb lunch! Just to test, we ordered simple courses, i.e Scampi, Burger, and Chicken curry. These were all faultless! I have never had such delicious scampi, which can often be tasteless. And your fries are to die for! Such a change from the usual fat, tasteless chips! Minor things such as the tartare sauce, salad dressing, and the home-made coleslaw were equally delicious. We live in Bagshot where pub food is unmentionable...close to West End where the "Inn at West End" keeps winning awards.....why???? You are so much better! My friend adored the chicken curry.

Possibly seemed a bit rude when I got up to look at what other diners were eating...all looked fabulous! (Did not feel guilty about this as same people were peering at the blackboard over our table...always the embarrassing time when one makes a mess and misses one's mouth!) If the lunchtime menu is the same (apart from Specials), during the week...perhaps it may be more friendly to have a printed menu available for each table?

I think that we will be regular customers, and we now know that advance booking is recommended.

To conclude, I can say that we have at last found a pub with truly superb food, great atmosphere and service, not a million miles away from Bagshot!

Sincerely.....Robin Mxxxxxxx.
